

Good News Jail & Prison Ministry

Position Profile

Position: Director of International Support

Role: The Director of International Support is responsible for developing and maintaining partner relationships and engagement strategies that will result in the funding, growth and sustainment of the GNJPM ministries globally with distinct focus on ministry abroad. The Director of International Support works with the President, Vice President for International Ministry, Director of International Chaplains, the International Committee and the Advancement Staff of Good News to help formulate and implement plans to sustain, equip and expand the opportunities for chaplains around the world.

Job Responsibilities:

1. Vision and Leadership

Responsible for identifying, developing, and implementing strategies to establish and maintain high quality engagement with financial partners who share the mission and vision of GNJPM.

2. Program Development

Responsible for working with the President, Vice President for International Ministry, Director of International Chaplains, the International Committee and the Advancement Staff of Good News in the strategy and execution of consistent programs to develop donor/partner relationships and engagements.

Professional Qualifications

The candidate should have a proven track record of organizational leadership with experience in the following areas:

- Business/Organizational Management
- Ministry Leadership
- Strategic Program Development
- Communications
- Discipleship
- Finance and Budget Management

Personal Qualifications

- Strategic Thinker/Planner
- Honesty and Integrity
- High Level Relationship Developer
- Superior Written and Verbal Communicator

- Effective Motivator and Encourager
- Successful Manager
- Biblical Thinker/Processor

Spiritual Qualifications

- Biblical Student
- Biblical Communicator
- Devotion to Cause of Christ
- Consistent Ministry and Service
- Personal Accountability