

Chaplain Manuel A. Cordero is the Senior Director for U.S. Chaplaincy Ministries for the General Council of the Assemblies of God. He has been in prison ministry for 43 years. Prior to this position, Dr. Cordero ministered in the Federal Bureau of Prisons for almost 24 years. His last assignment was as an assistant to the Chief of Chaplains in Washington, D.C. He has served on many boards: Coalition of Prison Evangelists, Correctional Ministries and Chaplains Association, Institute for Prison Ministry at the Billy Graham Center (received Chaplain of the Year award 2010), Wheaton College and American Correctional Chaplains Association. He will bring the concluding plenary message and will challenge the participants to excellence in correctional ministry.