

Evelyn Lemly lives in Florida, USA, where she serves as CEO of Kairos Prison Ministry International (“Kairos”) which is in over 500 communities in 10 countries utilizing over 30,000 volunteers. Kairos’ focus is to share the transforming love and forgiveness of Jesus Christ to those impacted by incarceration. Previously, Evelyn worked in the business world, then became President of a Bible translation ministry, as well as Executive Vice President of a ministry that teaches locals to study the Bible and work to establish churches. She holds a MBA in leadership of organizations, marketing, and finance and she has trained around the world in fundraising, management, and leadership. Evelyn serves as Vice President on the Executive Board for CMCA and as Secretary for the Coalition of Prison Evangelists Board of Directors.