

Rev. Dr. Lawrence C. Glass, Jr. was called to the pastorate of El Bethel Baptist Church In Redford, Michigan in 1990. Pastor Glass attended William Tyndale Bible and continues to refresh and renew his spiritual walk with ongoing reading materials and seminars. In 2013 Pastor Glass received his honorary Doctorate of Divinity from the New Covenant University.

“PG” as he is affectionately known, has a profound ability to relate to the young and the old alike. Pastor Glass’ secret weapon has been his prayer life and the Prayer Warriors who partner with him to fast and pray for him, his family, the church members and El Bethel ministries every hour of the day and every day of the year.

Pastor Glass is a dynamic, energetic and internationally know preacher and teacher. He has the ability to expound on the scriptures with simple elegance. His ability to take traditional precepts and transform them into contemporary practices helps his listeners apply Biblical principles to their everyday lives.

His ministry colleagues have labeled him with the following – "a man of integrity, a man of commitment, a man of compassion and a visionary". He has a fun personality and a great love for God's people. He promotes Christian unity and family values.

He is married to the former Sandra Abraham; they have six children between them.
