

CMCA | 20 SUMMIT | 20

May 15 and 16, 2020

“Look to the LORD and His strength, seek His face always...” Psalm 105:4

Each year the CMCA Correctional Ministries Summit offers something for everyone engaged in correctional ministry:

- Acquire skills for effective correctional ministry through workshops, policy forum, training and plenary sessions led by experienced professionals
- Network with others involved in correctional ministry
- Engage in encouraging and inspirational worship
- Attain new resources and information through quality exhibitors

The CMCA Summit is unique in bringing together a diverse population of individuals and organizations engaged in correctional ministry, all with a purpose to learn, grow, and be refreshed for ministry.

Dr. Ed Stetzer is Executive Director of the Billy Graham Center. Ed has planted, revitalized, and pastored churches, trained pastors and church planters on six continents.

Troy Rienstra is Outreach Director, Safe & Just Michigan. Troy works reaching out to crime survivors, formerly incarcerated individuals, family members, and the faith community.

DeAnna R. Hoskins is President & CEO of JustLeadershipUSA, a nationally recognized leader and a formerly incarcerated person with experience as an advocate and policy expert.

David Iglesias' diverse and global 34-year legal career includes service as U.S. Attorney, U.S. Navy JAG Captain, White House Fellow, college professor, center director, author, state prosecutor, war crimes/terrorism prosecutor, and political candidate.

Dr. Manuel A. Cordero is Senior Director Chaplaincy Ministries, Assemblies of God. He served in the Federal Bureau of Prisons for nearly 24 years, and his last assignment was as an assistant to the Chief of Chaplains in D.C.
