

Worship & Special Music

Worship Leader & Recording Artist: Sharon Pulliam grew up singing in the church as a young girl. She always loved praising the Lord. As Sharon got older, she felt a strong calling on her life to worship God through the Ministry of Song. She loves to exhort, motivate and inspire God's people to a higher level of praise and worship. Sharon has ministered both locally and nationally in a variety of venues, in addition to her regular appearances at various churches throughout the years. Her passion is to uplift and lead people to a place of worship and salvation.

Sharon currently leads the Intercessory Prayer Ministry and works as the Manager of Transportation in Evangelism for the Metropolitan Community Church. Sharon has been a guest soloist and ministered at several churches throughout the Midwest and Atlanta area, featured soloist on Atlanta Live, an On Air personality and host of gospel music radio show, a featured soloist at the Black Women's Expo and spokesperson, performer for a Chicago Organ Donation telethon hosted by the Secretary of State. She has also led praise and worship for thousands for nearly 30 years at the Chicago Apostolic Church of God.
