

CMCA 2020 Summit Speakers

Thursday evening, August 13: Opening Plenary Session: Deanna Hoskins President/CEO, JustLeadership USA

DeAnna Hoskins is President & CEO of JustLeadershipUSA (JLUSA). Dedicated to cutting the U.S. correctional population in #halfby2030, JLUSA empowers people most affected by the criminal justice system to drive reform. DeAnna is a nationally recognized leader and a formerly incarcerated person with experience as an advocate and policy expert at the local, state, and federal level. Prior to joining JLUSA as its President and CEO, DeAnna served as a Senior Policy Advisor at the U.S. Department of Justice, managing the Second Chance Act portfolio and serving as Deputy Director of the Federal Inter-Agency Reentry Council. Before that, she served as a county Director of Reentry in her home state of Ohio. DeAnna has always worked alongside advocates who have been impacted by incarceration, and knows that setting bold goals and investing in the leadership of directly impacted people is a necessary component of impactful, values-driven reform. Follow her on Twitter at @MzDeHoskins.

Thursday evening, August 13: Discipleship Training with Dr. Ed Stetzer Executive Director, Wheaton College Billy Graham Center

Ed Stetzer, Ph.D., holds the Billy Graham Chair of Church, Mission, and Evangelism at Wheaton College, serves as Dean of the School of Mission, Ministry, and Leadership at Wheaton College, and serves as Executive Director of the Billy Graham Center. He has planted, revitalized, and pastored churches, trained pastors and church planters on six continents, has earned two master's degrees and two doctorates, and has written hundreds of articles and a dozen books. He is Regional Director for Lausanne North America and publishes research through Mission Group. Stetzer is a contributing editor for Christianity Today, a columnist for Outreach Magazine, and is frequently cited in, interviewed by, and writes for news outlets such as USAToday and CNN. He is the Founding Editor of The Gospel Project, a curriculum used by more than 1.7 million individuals each week for Bible study.

Friday morning, August 14: Policy Forum on Clean Slate: Troy Rienstra Outreach Director, Safe and Just Michigan

Troy Rienstra joined Safe & Just Michigan in 2017 and works to advance the organization's outreach program by elevating the voices of people directly harmed by the effects of crime and punishment. He is responsible for outreach activities to crime survivors, formerly incarcerated individuals, and their family members, and the faith community. Prior to serving as outreach director, Rienstra founded the Network for Real Change, and worked as program coordinator at the Church of the Servant - Prisoners in Christ. Rienstra completed 22 years of a life sentence in Michigan, and during that time he obtained training in critical thinking, communication, substance abuse awareness, and conflict resolution. "When people come together to help, they can change the world," says Rienstra. "Lives are being changed across the state, and that's exciting work to be a part of."

Saturday morning, August 15: Plenary Session II: Josh Smith Founder/CEO, 4th Purpose Foundation

From ex-felon to successful businessman, Josh Smith has spent the last 15 years actively involved in prison reform efforts, supporting programs that provide hope, training and reentry support to prisoners and their families who earnestly want a new life, including hiring and mentoring many felons. Josh prides himself on mentoring others to help them reach their personal goals. Josh was the founder of Knoxville, Tennessee's largest home-improvement service company, growing it to nearly $30M in revenue with over 150 employees and locations across 3 different states. This past November, he dedicated over $10M from the sale of his business into his true passion, which he has named 4th Purpose Foundation. The foundation's mission is to help develop scalable, best-practice programs to make prison a place of transformation.

Saturday afternoon, August 15: Closing Plenary Session: Dr. Manny Cordero Senior Director, Assemblies of God US Chaplaincy

Dr. Manuel A. Cordero is the Senior Director for U.S. Chaplaincy Ministries for The General Council of the Assemblies of God. He has been in prison ministry for over 43 years. He received an M.Div. from the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary, Springfield, Missouri; and a D.Min. in Marriage and Family Therapy from Palmer Seminary, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He served in the Federal Bureau of Prisons for nearly 24 years, and his last assignment before retirement was as an assistant to the Chief of Chaplains in Washington, D.C. He has served on many boards, such as the board of The Coalition of Prison Evangelists; the board of the Correctional Ministries and Chaplains Association, the board of The Institute for Prison Ministries at the Wheaton College Billy Graham Center and the executive committee of the American Correctional Chaplains Association. Dr. Cordero received the Chaplain of the Year Award from the Institute for Prison Ministries at Wheaton College in 2010.