

CMCA | 20 SUMMIT | 20

August 13-15, 2020

The CMCA 2020 Summit is now virtual!

Join us wherever you are for livestream plenary sessions, interactive workshop sessions and networking opportunities!

“Look to the LORD and His strength, seek His face always...” Psalm 105:4

Each year the CMCA Correctional Ministries Summit offers something for everyone engaged in correctional ministry:

- Acquire skills for effective correctional ministry through workshops, policy forum and plenary sessions led by experienced professionals. Engage in encouraging and inspirational worship.
- Network with others in correctional ministry. Attain new resources and information through quality exhibitors.

The CMCA Summit is unique in bringing together a diverse population of individuals and organizations engaged in correctional ministry, all with a purpose to learn, grow, and be refreshed for ministry.

Dr. Ed Stetzer is Executive Director of the Wheaton College Billy Graham Center. Ed has planted, revitalized, and pastored churches, trained pastors and church planters on six continents.

Troy Rienstra is Outreach Director, Safe & Just Michigan. Troy works reaching out to crime survivors, formerly incarcerated individuals, family members, and the faith community.

DeAnna R. Hoskins is President & CEO of JustLeadershipUSA, a nationally recognized leader and a formerly incarcerated person with experience as an advocate and policy expert.

Josh Smith is CEO/ Founder of 4th Purpose Foundation, whose mission is to make prison a place of transformation. Josh is a formerly incarcerated person turned businessman.

Dr. Manuel A. Cordero is Senior Director Chaplaincy Ministries, Assemblies of God. He served in the Federal Bureau of Prisons for nearly 24 years, and his last assignment was as an assistant to the Chief of Chaplains in D.C.
