"GLS20 was amazing from start to finish. 15 years I've been incarcerated and I've never felt such joy, passion, inspiration, pain and motivation all at the same time. Thank you! I can't wait for GLS21!"

Shawn, GLS Prison Program Attendee

"Bringing the GLS into the prison has shown the inmates that they are worthy of the investment being made in them. The lessons they learn are empowering them to behave more like leaders in the microcosm of prison culture in preparation for who they will be on the outside."

Dave Wiggins, Florida Dept. of Corrections Volunteer

"I want to thank you for the best 2 days of my life. I never felt more free or loved in all my 49 years of life."

Jason, GLS Prison Program Attendee

WELCOME

Welcome to the Correctional Ministries and Chaplains Association (CMCA) 2021 Correctional Ministries Summit. We are thrilled that you are able to join us VIRTUALLY. We have prayed and worked hard for months to make this Summit an event that will be greatly profitable and truly unforgettable for you. We want you to leave refreshed, inspired, educated, equipped and better connected to like-minded ministry leaders.

There is a great need for Christians to learn how to best serve hurting people impacted by the criminal justice system. This includes those who are accused of committing crimes, crime victims, family members, young offenders and communities impacted by crime. CMCA leaders include the most learned, experienced and committed professionals representing every aspect of correctional ministry. Our leaders are experts in the fields of in-prison, jail, and juvenile ministry, chaplaincy, reentry, ministry to families, victims and correctional staff.

Our desire is to better equip you to more effectively fulfill the Great Commission in corrections. Every Summit activity is geared toward that end. We hope that you will attend every plenary and workshop session, and networking opportunity during the Summit. Most of all we pray that the Holy Spirit will provide you with everything you need for the work to which He has called you.

Your Servant, because of Christ,

Jerry Blessingame
President, CMCA

Christians Working Together in CORRECTIONAL MINISTRY

MISSION

The mission of CMCA is to connect, encourage, equip, and strengthen Christians as they fulfill the Great Commission in Corrections.

VISION

The vision of CMCA is for Christians to work together in correctional ministry to advance Christ's Kingdom and enhance public safety.

At CMCA, our belief is that through the power of Christ, we can transform the lives of the incarcerated, formerly incarcerated, and their families to strengthen our communities. Therefore, our goal is to support correctional ministry professionals, volunteers, and organizations as they serve those impacted by crime and incarceration.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe the Bible to be the inspired, the only infallible, authoritative Word of God

We believe that there is one God, eternally existent in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Spirit

We believe in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, in His virgin birth, in His sinless life, in His miracles, in His vicarious and atoning death through His shed blood, in His bodily resurrection, in His ascension to the right hand of the Father, and in His personal return in power and glory

We believe that for the salvation of lost and sinful people, regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential

We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life

We believe in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; they that are saved unto the resurrection of life and they that are lost unto the resurrection of damnation

We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ

CHRISTIAN FORMATION SEMINAR: NURTURING YOUR SOUL TO FIND CLOSENESS WITH GOD

Thursday, May 20th, 7:10–8:10PM Central Time (8:10 ET, 6:10 MT, 5:10 PT)

(Seminar begins 5 minutes following the end of the Opening Plenary Session)

Mindy Caliguire President and Co-Founder, Soul Care, Ltd.
*Presenter Christian Formation Seminar:
Nurturing Your Soul to Find Closeness with God.*

Mindy Caliguire, is the co-founder and president of Soul Care, a spiritual formation ministry that exists to increase “soul health” in the Body of Christ. She serves in executive leadership at Gloop (www.gloop.us), and prior to that served as Director of Transformation Ministry for the Willow Creek Association (WCA). Mindy speaks and advises several organizations and has also written several books on soul care and spiritual formation.

Prison ministry is hard. We're here to help.

With many facilities closed to visitors due to COVID-19, chaplains and prison ministry workers have difficult jobs. Crossroads Prison Ministries can support you by offering the people you serve life-changing Bible studies and letters from volunteer mentors on the outside to encourage them on their spiritual journeys.

POLICY FORUM: COLLATERAL CONSEQUENCES

Friday, May 21st, 10:00-11:00 AM Central Time (11 ET, 9 MT, 8 PT)

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Marcus Bullock

Founder/CEO Flikshop, Inc.

Keynote Speaker and Panelist, Policy Forum

Marcus Bullock is an entrepreneur, justice reform advocate, and TED speaker. Following his 2004 release from prison, he launched a construction business that grew to employ other returning citizens. Bullock is also founder and CEO of Flikshop, Inc., a software company that builds tools to help incarcerated people stay connected to their families and build community.

PANEL MODERATOR

Heather Rice-Minus

Sr. Vice-President Advocacy and Church Mobilization, Prison Fellowship
Moderator, Policy Forum

Heather Rice-Minus serves as senior vice president of advocacy and church mobilization at Prison Fellowship, the nation's largest Christian nonprofit serving prisoners, former prisoners, and their families. She is a powerful, knowledgeable voice articulating the case for restorative criminal justice solutions and how churches play a critical role in meeting the needs of those impacted by crime and incarceration.

PANEL

Neil Volz

Deputy Director of the Florida Rights Restoration Coalition

Panelist, Policy Forum

Neil Volz has more than 25 years of experience working as a public servant and community advocate. He is currently the Deputy Director of the Florida Rights Restoration Coalition. His previous work includes being the Chief of Staff for a Member of Congress and the Staff Director for a full Congressional Committee, as well as the Outreach Director for one of the fastest growing Churches in the country and as the Program Director for a leading Non-Profit Organization that serves formerly homeless veterans.

Brianna Nuhfer Director Criminal Justice, Stand Together

Panelist, Policy Forum

Brianna Nuhfer is the director of criminal justice at Stand Together and leads the policing reform portfolio. Her work focuses on advancing strategic partnerships, policy reforms, and public dialogue that breaks the barriers preventing people from realizing their potential. Previously she co-founded a non-profit which identifies local needs and equips men and women to take action to serve in their communities.

Pacific Youth

correctional ministries

When you consider correctional ministry, remember it is not limited to jails or prisons. There are 70,000 youth sitting in 1,280 public juvenile facilities today in desperate need of the life change only Christ can bring. Please remember to add juveniles to your overall correctional vision and mission.

LOOKING FOR A BIBLE STUDY TO EQUIP THE CHURCH BEHIND THE WALLS?

INSTITUTE FOR PRISON MINISTRIES

Answering The Call (ATC) is an 11-week, in-prison training for Christ-followers to live focused lives of witness and discipleship. ATC equips participants to develop relationships and communicate the gospel naturally, with gentleness and respect, and to disciple Christ followers toward maturity in Christ. By the end of the training, participants are able to:

- Describe the call to make disciples
- Define what it means to be spiritually lost, a disciple, a witness and an evangelist
- Describe the model of prayer, care, share and stay there
- Be motivated and confident about sharing the gospel and their personal transformation story
- Assist other Christ-followers to grow in their faith

If you are interested in becoming a Certified Trainer, visit prisoninstitute.com. Certified trainers are eligible to receive free participant workbooks for a training with the incarcerated.

The Institute for Prison Ministries is an institute of the Wheaton College Billy Graham Center.

SUMMIT PLENARY SPEAKERS

KEYNOTE SPEAKER, OPENING PLENARY SESSION

Rickie Bradshaw

Pastor First Southwest Baptist Church, Houston TX

Pastor Rickie Bradshaw has actively served in criminal justice ministry, leading more than 200 churches and ministries to serve in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice. While serving as a volunteer in Texas Department of Criminal Justice in D.O.C. and Parole Divisions, Pastor Rickie received The Volunteer of the Year Award in 2016.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER, PLENARY SESSION II

Nena Staley

Director of Reentry Programs, Global Tel Link

Nena Staley had recently served as Deputy Director of Reentry and Rehabilitative Services for South Carolina Department of Corrections. She had been with the Department of Corrections for 34 years, serving as Assistant Warden in a maximum security prison and Warden of a reentry facility. Nena is passionate about providing reentry services for every individual being released and removing barriers upon reentry including housing, career, education, family reunification, identification.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER, CLOSING PLENARY SESSION

Michael Reighard

Critical Incident Ministries Chaplaincy Representative, Assemblies of God

Michael Reighard has served over 20 years as Supervisory Chaplain for the Federal Bureau of Prisons. In conjunction with correctional chaplaincy, he developed Jericho Commission, a Christ-based reentry ministry for the formally incarcerated, and served as the founding president of the Correctional Ministries and Chaplains Association (CMCA).

IPM Award 2021

Each year, the Institute for Prison Ministries Award is presented to an individual in recognition of years of faithful service to proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the incarcerated and formerly incarcerated. The award recognizes this servant for tireless devotion to correctional ministry and for being a shining example for others to follow.

This year, we have two recipients.

The 2021 Institute for Prison Ministries Awards go to Steve Lowe and Joseph Williams.

SUMMIT MUSIC

NorthEast of the Well WORSHIP & SPECIAL MUSIC

NorthEast of the Well is called to bring God's Word into dark and desperate places, focusing on those in recovery and restoration. We aim to empower those caught up in cycles of abuse, addiction, incarceration and sexual exploitation, equipping each one with the tools that help them step into their purpose. We teach Christ's love for all people through His word, through Worship, and by the sharing of our lives in an authentic community. Mission Statement: REACH. CONNECT. EQUIP.

WE GO DIRECTLY TO THE NEED: Reaching out each week to more than a dozen transitional programs, shelters, safe houses and drug treatment programs; Bringing God's Word, Worship, and sharing ourselves in a way that leads to deep personal connection.

WE PROVIDE A PLACE TO CONNECT: Gathering weekly as an extended community at 3 separate locations; Providing a place to learn and grow alongside others with similar life experiences.

WE EQUIP PEOPLE TO INVEST IN THEIR OWN PROCESS OF TRANSFORMATION: Offering small groups, discipleship opportunities, and a path to leadership; Helping people to lead productive lives that point to Christ, through mentorship and education.

Richard Andrew SPECIAL MUSIC

Richard Andrew is a Southern California singer/songwriter, worship leader, evangelist and speaker. This former runaway, high school dropout, teen father, drug addict, drug dealer, homeless youth and convicted felon just celebrated 27 years in Christian ministry. 2021 marks his 11th year leading worship for the NASCAR community of drivers, crew and their families. He has partnered with Prison Fellowship for many years, serving in facilities all over the country, witnessing thousands of incarcerated individuals come to faith in Jesus.

Richard has served in worship as a missionary in four countries. He mentors worship leaders and their teams, serves in various recovery based programs, is active in community outreach, and volunteers in music at local food banks, veterans gatherings, shelters and more. He speaks at many mens conferences and retreats each year, and has a passion for men, husbands, fathers and friends to walk in the fullness of freedom found in Jesus. Above all else, his desire is to communicate the same hope and healing he found in Christ with the lost, forgotten and marginalized of this day. He is an advocate of 2nd chances; believing authentic, lasting change is possible. And that no one is beyond hope's reach.

JAIL/PRISON MINISTRY NETWORKING FACILITATOR

Evelyn Lemly
CEO Kairos Prison Ministry International

Evelyn Lemly is the CEO of Kairos Prison Ministry International (“Kairos”) serving over 500 communities in ten countries utilizing over 30,000 volunteers. Previously, Evelyn worked in the business world, was President of a Bible translation ministry, as well as Executive Vice President of a ministry focused on teaching locals to study the Bible and to establish churches. She holds a MBA in leadership of organizations, marketing, and finance. Evelyn serves as Vice President on the Executive Board for CMCA and as Secretary for the Coalition of Prison Evangelists Board of Directors.

CHAPLAINCY NETWORKING FACILITATOR

Boyd Chikatulah
CEO, 3 Oaks Ministries

Boyd Chikatulah has worked in both the fields of corrections and pastoral care for many years. Boyd has been involved in planting Churches and served as pastor, started a ministry school, and also worked as a Field and Counseling Officer for the Drug Enforcement Commission. In Idaho, Boyd serves as the CEO of 3 Oaks Ministries which is contracted to oversee all Religious and Volunteer Services. He has conducted numerous volunteer trainings for the Department, spoken at the IDOC Volunteer Community events, and was recently appointed chair of the Community Information and Resource Fair Steering Committee.

REENTRY NETWORKING FACILITATOR

Joseph Williams
Senior Training and Technical Assistance Consultant,
American Institute for Research

Joseph Williams’ passion for helping the incarcerated, formerly incarcerated and their families reach their God-given potential is born from his own past battles with crime and addiction. He has created and implemented several innovative approaches that have helped others to experience total restoration. Joe currently serves Senior Training and Technical Assistance Consultant with American Institute for Research, where he serves as a Core Coach for the National Reentry Resource Center. Joe provides TTA for adult community reentry providers of justice-related services in urban and rural areas under the Second Chance Act, Mentoring and Community Based Adult Reentry track.

YOUTH NETWORKING FACILITATOR

Steve Lowe
Founder, President, Executive Chaplain, Pacific Youth Correctional Ministries

Steve Lowe, a co-founder of CMCA, has provided professional institutional service in southern California counties, including supervising the Protestant Chaplaincy Ministries for the Orange County Juvenile Justice Complex’s multiple institutions for 51 years and continuing to facilitate juvenile ministry at national sites. As Founder, President, and Executive Chaplain for Pacific Youth Correctional Ministries, an international chaplain-placing ministry, Steve also assists Christian organizations and penal agencies as a consultant in program development and implementation. He has experience as an adjunct faculty member with Wheaton College and the Institute for Prison Ministries, Billy Graham Center, and Biola University, specializing in criminology and juvenile delinquency coursework.

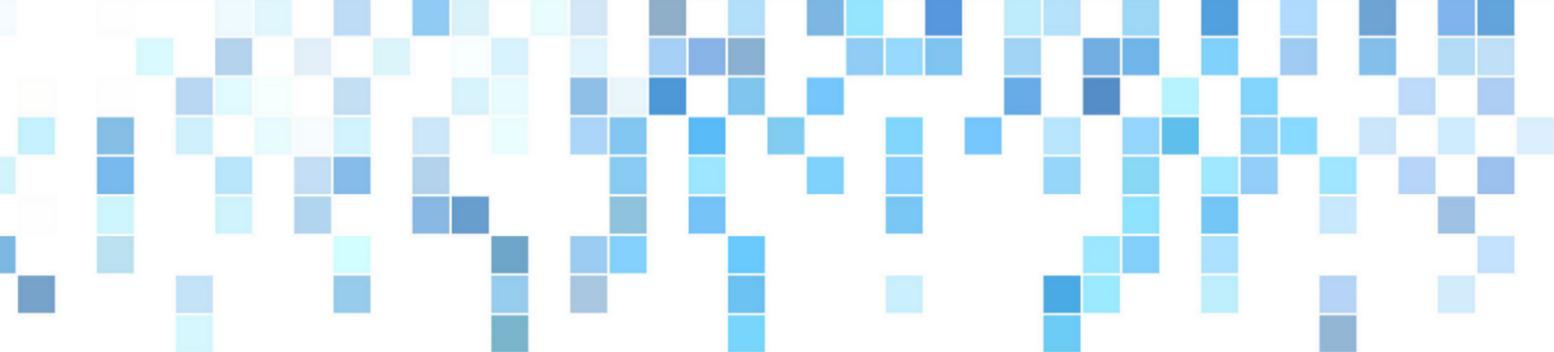

ADVOCACY NETWORKING FACILITATOR

Krista Ortiz
Justice Ambassador Specialist, Prison Fellowship

Krista Ortiz serves Prison Fellowship’s advocacy team by building and mobilizing a network of people who are passionate about justice that restores. She equips Prison Fellowship’s Justice Ambassadors in the eastern United States to improve the criminal justice system using strategies like constituent lobbying, media engagement, and storytelling. Her faith in Christ and belief that change is possible when Christians act on behalf of others motivates her to help individuals find and raise their voice to advance justice that restores for all. Ortiz holds both undergraduate and graduate degrees in social work, with specialties in community mobilization, research, advocacy, and public policy.
