

Bio for Randy Walker

Correctional Ministry Pastor, Church of the Highlands-Alabama
Founder and President, LifeLink Career Resource Center-Alabama

Randy Walker serves at Church of the Highlands as the visionary for planting Highlands Church Campuses inside the prison communities in Alabama. Beginning in 2012, Highlands' correctional staff along with hundreds of volunteers has planted their campus model in 21 state correctional facilities as well as county jails and juvenile detention facilities.

Randy founded LifeLink in 2008, which is a residential training academy in partnership with the ADOC inside the Alabama prison system. The training academy, named CORE, operates a 260 bed housing unit containing offices, classrooms and full-time staff. The CORE process is a 2-year, evidence-based curriculum addressing criminogenic factors and cognitive behavioral therapies. Re-entry is also a primary focus of LifeLink, which also provides transitional housing.
