

Richard Andrew is a Southern California singer/songwriter, worship leader, evangelist and speaker. This former runaway, high school dropout, teen father, drug addict, drug dealer, homeless youth and convicted felon just celebrated 29 years in Christian ministry. Richard leads worship for the NASCAR community of drivers, crew, staff and their families for 12 years in partnership with Motor Racing Outreach. He has partnered with Prison Fellowship for many years, serving in facilities all over the country, witnessing thousands of incarcerated individuals come to faith in Jesus. Richard has served in worship as a missionary in four countries. He mentors worship leaders and their teams, serves in various recovery based programs, is active in community outreach, and volunteers in music at local food banks, veterans gatherings, shelters and more. He speaks at many mens conferences and retreats each year, and has a passion for men, husbands, fathers and friends to walk in the fullness of freedom found in Jesus. Above all else, his desire is to communicate the same hope and healing he found in Christ with the lost, forgotten and marginalized of this day. He is an advocate of 2nd chances; believing authentic, lasting change is possible. And that no one is beyond hope's reach.
