

Neddie Pearl Lang-Moore

Neddie is fully vision oriented and has innate leadership ability with high standards of professional ethics, personal values, and a positive attitude. She is a dedicated and disciplined self-starter with an ability to work independently. She has effective oral and written communication skills and is an effective team member who can work well with a variety of personalities and demographics and is a logical thinker that functions well within chaotic environments. She is spiritually minded with a God given compassion for hurting people. Neddie received salvation at an early age and feels a strong sense of calling to the Five-Fold ministry. She is licensed and ordained to serve others in the Kingdom. She built Emmanuel Place Ministries Inc 501(c) (3) and quickly realized the need for community advocacy and referral outreach programs to promote safe and healthy living. Her heart broke for families at risk for domestic violence, juvenile delinquency, and substance abuse. This was her beginning of collaboration with the DA, judges, probation officers, and police officers to offer an alternative way for dealing with offenders.

Ms. Moore has enjoyed a lifetime of bi-vocational ministry of pastoral care and mental health counseling in a variety of professional settings. Neddie has used her gifts and talents for over 40 years to serve in the community helping broken and hurting individuals and families in a multiplicity of opportunities. She has a M.A. in Christian Theology from Baylor University/Truett Theological Seminary, Waco, Tx. and a B.S. Human & Family Services, Bethany, Ok. She also has 27 years of professional healthcare and human service experience balanced by a 23-year medical career including licensed nursing and medical physics where she performed quality assurance on diagnostic medical equipment. Honorable Neddie Moore is a public servant where she has been a Public Notary, and City Code Enforcement officer and a Victim Advocate for Domestic Violence. She just finished a third term serving as an Honorable Councilmember for Precinct 5 in her hometown.

Neddie has been a Certified Volunteer Chaplain for over 15 years at a variety of establishments such as prison units, county jails, and youth detention facilities in the Central Texas region. She is presently serving as a Chaplain II for the Texas Department of Criminal Justice. She has served 5 years as unit chaplain at the William P. Hobby Complex, a maximum-security unit, and 2 years at her present position at the Complex's' Reentry facility. Upon her soon approaching retirement from TDCJ, her plans are to continue her work of giving pastoral care and helping hurting people heal in more opportunities to build ministry within the community to help restore broken families and promote healthier living.
