

Nick Robbins

Since 2008, Nick's work in the area of prison ministry includes Reentry positions with both Prison Fellowship and Pathway to Freedom.

Nick is a Charles Colson Scholarship recipient from Wheaton College and a graduate of the School for Correctional Ministries Reentry Leadership Credential Program.

In his current role, Nick oversees Returning Home a Pre- Adjudication and Reentry-focused community organization in Springdale Arkansas.

Nick is a former Executive Board Member of the Correctional Ministry and Chaplains Association, a Civic Board Member of the Northwest Arkansas Community Correction Center in Fayetteville, an Advisory Board Member of the Institute for Prison Ministries, and a chair of the Washington County Criminal Justice Coordinating Committee.

Public Speaking: civic groups, churches, public discussion panel speaker, college, high schools, Warden Exchange Program. He married Kelly in 2008 and they have two boys Alex and Andrew.