

Phil Collins - Bio

Education:

- B.A. in Bible Literature and Christian Education, Taylor University (1982)
- Graduate studies in Old Testament at Institute of Holy Land Studies (now Jerusalem University College)
- M.A. in Christian Education, Trinity Evangelical Divinity School (1993)
- Ph.D. in Educational Psychology, Purdue University (2005).

Full-time Ministry Experience

- 6 years of full-time youth ministry with Youth for Christ
- 10 years of full-time youth ministry in a church setting

Ordained in 1994

Taylor University Teaching Experience

- Full-time professor in the Biblical Studies, Christian Ministries, Philosophy Department
- Department Chair - Biblical Studies, Christian Ministries, Philosophy Department
- Professor of Christian Ministries
- Interim Academic Dean of the School for Humanities, Arts and Biblical Studies (1 year)
- Courses Taught: Introduction to Christian Ministries, Inductive Study of the Bible, Personal Foundations of Ministry, Psychological and Educational Foundations for Christian Ministries, Program and Curriculum Development, Evangelism in Youth Ministry, Discipleship in Youth Ministry, Ministry to Youth, Leadership Development, Philosophy and Strategies for Christian Ministries, Christian Ministries Senior Capstone.

Awards/Honors

- Taylor University Teaching Excellence and Campus Leadership Award (2009)
- Who's Who Among America's teachers (x2)
- Who's Who in America

Taylor University Center for Scripture Engagement

- Co-executive director
- Director of Training and Content Development

Publications

Abide Bible – Thomas Nelson Bibles - General Editor
Abide Bible Course – HarperChristian Resources – Co-author with Randy Frazee

Family Members: Wife – Terri (married 40 years), Son – Luke, Daughter – Katelyn

Hobbies: Woodworking, sailing, gardening, reading.